Seven Perfect Days in Iceland with Gunnsi

Aug 2018

I just returned home yesterday after 9 days in Iceland - 7 days were spent with Gunnsi from Season Tours. I do not have adequate words to express how amazing this vacation was and how wonderful a guide Gunnsi is.

First - if you are still debating whether to go to Iceland - GO!!!! It is the most beautiful country I have ever seen. During our week, we hiked waterfalls, visited a geyser, saw glaciers, rode horses, climbed basalt columns, hiked a volcano.....so many more amazing things that I cannot even begin to list.

Second, our choice to use Season Tours was the best choice we made (after choosing to go to Iceland of course). We took a 7 day private tour for our family (myself, my husband, my 10 year old son and my 7 year old daughter). Gunnsi made the trip perfect for us. He picked out sites and activities that were interesting and adventurous (my family is happiest when we are in nature and moving). He is such an amazing wealth of knowledge about all things Icelandic - the geology, the Sagas, etc. Most importantly, I was worried that it would be weird to have another person with our family for 7 days, but Gunnsi is such a pleasure to be with!!!!

The accommodations were all wonderful and the food was great. The only complaint that I can come up with is that it will be hard to plan any trip in the future that will top this one.

Thank you to Gunnsi for a wonderful week!

This day tour starts with a one-hour flight from Reykjavik to Egilsstaðir, where we then drive towards Stuðlagil. There is a choice between a two-hour hike back and forth to the canyon or driving closer and then walking a stairway of more than one hundred steps and watching the canyon from the other side. After enjoying Stuðlagil, we can bathe in the geothermal baths at Vök or see the colorful street in Seyðisfjörður. Flying again back to Reykjavik before dinnertime.
