

Two days South coast to Jökulsárlón

Product Details

Brand: Multi-day tours,

In our multiday tours we stay out in the countryside and have the opportunity to enjoy more beautiful sights because we don't spend time driving to Reykjavik in the evening. We carefully pick our hotels, where there is good food and atmosphere. The accommodation, breakfast, and two-course gourmet dinner are included. For Northern Lights hunters staying in the countryside away from the light pollution, we often have a good opportunity to see them. On our tours you will get to know everything about the nature, locals, their interesting food and folklore

Tour Highlights:

Day one

- We stop in a bakery in Hveragerði, which is a town of hot springs and earthquakes.
- Urriðafoss waterfall.
- We drive through the area of the story of burnt Njál, Njáluslóð.
- Skógafoss waterfall.
- Dyrhólaey drive on island.
- Vík town, the cemetery, and the church.
- Fjaðrárgljúfur is a magical ravine.
- Skaftafell National Park (hike to Svartifoss waterfall for active guests).
- We stay and dine in a hotel in the vicinity of the Jökulsárlón glacier lagoon.

Day two

- Jökulsárlón, the glacier lagoon, with floating icebergs from Breiðamerkurjökull.

2-day guided tour of Iceland's Southcoast

May 2018

We, a family of 4, had a great time in Iceland with different tours (group tours, a private tour and driving ourselves). They provided us with a wide variety of experiences and flavors. Our 2-day private tour with Season Tours was very memorable. Oktovia, our tour guide was excellent, very friendly, knowledgeable and accommodating. She took us to visit a hidden waterfall which our friend recommended and was not on their itinerary. It turned out that we had the best waterfall pictures there with a 180 deg rainbow behind us! We visited many other waterfalls and were fortunate enough to see rainbows at another waterfall. Oktovia not only informed us a lot about Iceland (it's history, it's people and it's geology) but also doubled as our photographer. She took a lot of candid shots and at the end of the trip, she emailed us the link to the photos she took, great service! Our tour included glacier, black sand beaches, dramatic rock formations, and many, many waterfalls of different sizes. With Iceland's unpredictable weather, we were very grateful to experience great weather. The SUV provided by Season Tours was very comfortable for 4 people. The restaurants, and hotel in the country side they picked were excellent. Water proof clothing and shoes are important if want to get very close or behind the waterfalls. I didn't include names of places we visited because it's impossible to spell and pronounce, they are also very long! Not an inexpensive tour, but it's really worth it!

The South Coast is the area second most visited by tourists in Iceland, after the Golden Circle. For a good reason! On the tour, you will see glaciers, black sand beaches, gorges, cliffs, and capes. You will hear stories of famous Vikings, folklore, and history. The changing flora and fauna with the blue lupine and wild thyme in summertime, along with the vivid birdlife, including the colorful puffins. Active volcanoes and glaciers are creating the diverse geology. In this itinerary example we stay close to the lagoon with the icebergs, where we often see seals and reindeer. All year long, the moss-covered lava fields are simply stunning. By adding a day to this tour, it is possible to go even further east or more inland.
